
ETİ SODA A.Ş.
QUALITY, OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY,
ENVIRONMENT, FOOD AND ANIMAL FOOD SAFETY POLICY

- To comply with legal obligations, standard conditions of the management systems set in our company, and ethical conducts; consider the needs and expectations of the concerning parties, meet the related expectations and requirements to the extent of their applicability,
- To contribute the economy of the country and religion, and increase our market share by presenting quality and environment-friendly sustainable products with the life cycle perspective,
- To become a reliable and preferred brand in the sector by continuously improving our product and service quality, and ensure the continuity of our quality,
- To carry out hygienic, quality manufacturing with maintained authenticity in compliance with food and animal food safety conditions at every stage of our Sodium Carbonate and Sodium Bicarbonate production,
- To timely and fully meet the customer requests to maximize the customer satisfaction,
- To meet the training need of our employees, contribute their personal development, increase employee satisfaction, create team spirit in our employees to ensure the achievement of unit and company goals, to increase awareness of our employees regarding quality, environment and occupational health,
- To provide the necessary open communication environment to encourage the participation of employees and employee representatives,
- To make our suppliers embrace our management systems for them to improve their product and service quality,
- Exercise strategic approach and provide leadership in effective management of the resources and in issues such as sectoral innovation, technologic development etc. which are important for our company,
- To take measure to minimize the effects harmful for human health and environment, prevent environmental pollution and climate change sourced from our operations, evaluate risks that may cause occupational diseases and accidents and eliminate these risks, achieve the final goal of “Zero Environment and Work Accident” by continuously improving the working conditions,
- Within the scope of “preventing or minimizing waste generation”, which forms the basis of the zero waste management principle, to collect the wastes separately at their source and to ensure their recovery,
- To share our policies with our customers, suppliers, employees and the local people, and be in an effective communication and collaboration.

GENERAL MANAGER