META HSE&SUSTAINABILITY&WELLBEING OFFICE: An audit and training company that develops projects with the universities and the business world with expert teams (lawyers, psychologists, sociologists, health and safety professionals) on labor law, labor legislation, health and safety, sustainability, wellbeing. Integrates international good practices into companies.

CONCLUSION AND ASSESSMENT

With regard to the visit held on 20-21.03.2023, ETİ SODA A.Ş.'s policies on Combating Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking, company practices, field studies and application records were examined. Considering the interviews with managers, employees, interns, subcontractors, reviewed records, feedback, suspicious situation determination studies, and reporting policies, it was determined that there were no officially recorded modern slavery and human trafficking cases in the company. The company has provided all necessary preparations to prevent Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking with its current policies and practices. In order to continuously improve the existing policies and system, the company has included the top management, all employees and the supply chain in the process, and included the targets aimed at preventing modern slavery and human trafficking in the 2023 targets.

This reporting has been prepared at the request of ETİ SODA and has been prepared in order to provide an independent assessment of the current situation practices. Reporting covers only Eti Soda policies, activities and practices and does not cover the Supply Chain.

Based on our company approach, ETİ SODA meets the above requirements, the records provided to us during our field visits, documentation applications and mutual meetings are accurate, reliable data and information.
